HERE AND THERE.

Summer has arrived among us in the most agreeable manner.

It is a pleasure to see the children in their summer dresses.

The weather is just what we need at this time of the year.

Phoenix Hose Company.

At the regular meeting of Phoenix Hose

Co. held on Wednesday night foreman

Victor Corraze tendered his resignation, which was accepted and William Spence elected to fill the unexpired term. Forman Corraze's resignation before the expiration of his term is the result of interference with the members of the company. A proposition to allow the Phoenix Hose Association to hold its meetings in the company's parlors is said to have originated the trouble.

To prevent the rooms being used in the future for such purposes, the company has decided to lease the rooms to the Phoenix Hose Association for the purpose of holding their meetings. A letter was read from Mr. Mayor at the meeting on Wednesday night denying that he had ever given any such advice. Mr. Corraze also denied that he had ever said that Mr. Mayor had advised him to resign.

Some one started a rumor to the effect that Mr. E. A. Raynor had advised this course of action. A letter was read from
